

Yakshi is looking for a new team member!

Women applicants only: Coordinator-Programs

Are you someone who has a deep interest in the praxis of Constitutional Values, BuenVivir and Social Justice? This position involves programmatic management and coordination of the core areas of work on BuenVivir and Social Justice, with specific responsibilities towards Yakshi's creative new Fellowship Program on Constitutional Values.

Responsibilities:

1. Program management which involves program planning, regular review and monitoring, reporting, fund raising.
2. Coordination
 - i. Coordination with Yakshi's Popular Education Team. Managing cross-learning and peer learning workshops and events, organising accompaniment visits with community fellows.
 - ii. Communication and coordination with community fellows
 - iii. Coordination with mentors, resource persons
3. Documentation and reporting.

Minimum 2 years of full time commitment with Yakshi.

Remuneration based on experience. | Preferred Age: 25 - 35

Requirements for Applicant:

1. Committed to the praxis of constitutional values, democracy, and social justice.
2. Speak, read, and write Telugu and English fluently.
3. Must have a minimum 3 years experience of program coordination in a civil society organisation.
4. Have creative imagination, organising, communication and problem solving skills.

Deadline for application: 15th of November, 2022

About Yakshi

Yakshi is an organisation that works with oppressed and marginalised communities from the states of Telangana and Andhra Pradesh to realise democratic governance, social justice, and food sovereignty with its strategic programs of Popular Education, Community Food Sovereignty, and Community Constitutional Resource Centres.

Learn more at <http://yakshi.org.in/>

Please send resume and cover letter to yakshi.a@gmail.com